Experience

Full-Stack Web & Software Developer

University of California, Los Angeles (Extension)

📅 August 2018 - November 2018 📍 Los Angeles, California

A 12-week immersive program that focused on full-stack web & software development through new technologies, live classes, and collaboration.

- Acquired a strong foundation of the MERN stack for full-stack web development.
- Led in a collaboration of 3-4 members to develop, design, and produce multiple full-stack applications from MVP to completion.
- Composed a presentation of full-stack applications to industry professionals, sponsors, and instructors.

Sous Chef

NASA Jet Propulsion Laboratory

📅 March 2016 - July 2018 📍 Pasadena, California

A leading research and development center for robotic exploration of the solar system, Earth science, and space-based astronomy missions.

- Restructured preparation workflow of my team which improved time efficiency and more effective time allocations.
- On-boarded new employees and cross-trained existing employees to produce a more versatile environment.
- Successfully managed customer relationships which furthered confidence, trust, and other additional rippling factors.
